IDFC FIRST Bank –

Customer Service: Terms and Conditions - General conditions

Account Opening:

1. The Customer agrees that opening an Account with the Bank shall be in accordance with these Terms and Condition and such other terms of the Account opening form.
2. Further, any opening and maintenance of the Account is subject to the rules and regulations introduced or amended from time to time by the RBI or any other regulatory body. The Customer agrees that the Bank before opening any Account, will carry out a Customer due diligence as required under the Know Your Customer ("KYC") guidelines of the Bank which is required under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002. The Customer would be required to submit necessary documents or proofs, such as identity, address, signature, photograph and any such information to meet with KYC, Anti-Money Laundering ("AML"), Combating Financing of Terrorism ("CFT") or other statutory/regulatory requirements. Further, after the Account is opened, in compliance with the extant regulatory guidelines, the Customer agrees to submit the above documents again at periodic intervals, as may be required by the Bank.
3. The Customer agrees that no amount in cash shall be paid to any sales representative of the Bank at the time of opening an Account or for carrying out any transaction in the normal course of the business. The Customer agrees to deposit cash only at the Bank's teller counters at the branch premises or by any other mode allowed by the Bank. In case the Account is opened with an account opening cheque, the Bank reserves the right not to open/activate the Account in the event the account opening cheque is dishonored.
4. Applicable if customer submits Aadhaar to the bank at the time of account opening or subsequently: I submit my Aadhaar number and voluntarily give consent to: Seed my Aadhaar / UID number issued by the UIDAI, Govt of India into this account. Receive all direct benefit transfers (DBT) from Govt. of India in this account. Use my Aadhaar details to authenticate me from UIDAI. Use my mobile number for sending SMS alerts to me. Information submitted to the bank will not be used for any purpose other than those mentioned above or as per requirements of law.
5. The Bank shall report the interest earned in a Savings Account/FD/RD against the Permanent Account Number (PAN) mapped to the said account and tax implications will apply accordingly as per the extant rules and guidelines.
6. TDS Implication for PAN and Aadhaar linkage: As per Section 139AA of the Income tax Act, 1961, it is mandatory to link Permanent Account Number ('PAN') with Aadhaar by June 30, 2023. If PAN is not linked, then the PAN provided by the customer will become inoperative. Failure to link will also attract higher TDS rate of 20%, as may be applicable on the income from the Bank. Bank will be unable to refund the TDS once deducted.

7. FATCA: The Customer shall indemnify IDFC FIRST Bank ("the Bank") for any loss that may arise to it on account of providing incorrect or incomplete information including but not limited to any false or inaccurate information furnished which affects the reporting done by the Bank under Section 285BA of the Income tax Act, 1961 and for which the Bank may be liable to pay a penalty of Rs.5,000 for each such error under Section 271FAA of the Income tax Act, 1961. In such scenario, the Bank can take appropriate action as provided in the Income tax Act, 1961 including but not limited to the recovery of the said amount by debiting the customer's account.

Operating Accounts:

1. An Account may be opened in the names of:
    - An individual in his/her own name;
    - Two or more persons in their joint names;
    - Sole Proprietorship; or
    - Any other entities including companies and partnerships.
2. All the Accounts maintained in the name of an individual shall be operated solely by the individual or by the Power of Attorney holder of such an individual registered with the Bank and in the case of joint accounts, by the account holders jointly, or by either of the joint-holder/s or as may be specified by the joint account holder/s in the Account opening form, or by their Power of Attorney holder and accepted by IDFC FIRST Bank in its discretion.
3. The Customer agrees that the Power of Attorney holder may give instructions, including but not limited to, the operation or closure of the Account or for any withdrawal of any of the Facilities. The Customer agrees and undertakes to keep the Bank informed of any revocation of any Power of Attorney issued by the Customer, failing which the Customer agrees and confirms not to hold the Bank liable for any loss or damage that may be caused as a result of the Bank acting or carrying out any instructions given by such Power of Attorney holder.
4. In the case of joint Accounts, any change in operational instructions or any other information with regard to the Account opening form is to be given by all the joint account holders irrespective of the mode of operation. However, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in case any request is made to the Bank by any of the joint account holders for change in his name or signature, the Bank may at its sole discretion accede to such request without obtaining request/consent/instruction from the other joint account holders. The Customer agrees to indemnify and keep indemnified the Bank harmless from and against all claims and demands that the Bank may suffer or incur on account of the above.
5. In case of non-individual Accounts, accounts shall be operated by authorised individuals as specified in the Partnership Deed, Board Resolution, etc provided and accepted by IDFC FIRST Bank in its discretion. The Customer agrees that authorised individuals as specified in the Partnership Deed, Board resolution etc, may give instructions including but not limited to operation, closure of the Account or for any withdrawal of any the Facilities. The Customer agrees and undertakes to keep the Bank informed of any revocation or changes in any Partnership Deed, Board Resolution, etc issued by the Customer, failing which the Customer agrees and confirms not to hold the Bank liable for any loss or damage that may be caused as a result of Bank acting or carrying out any instructions given by such authorised individuals.

6. Customer understands and acknowledges that the Bank is entitled to information with regard to the source of any monies being deposited in the Account and the Customer shall, upon demand, without demur or dispute, inform the Bank of any such source of monies. In case of any cash deposits to be made in the Account exceeding Rupees Fifty Thousand only (Rs. 50,000) or any other amount, in line with the requirements of the Income Tax Act, 1961, the Customer/person making such deposit shall be required to provide PAN/GIR number of the Customer. In case the PAN/GIR number is not available, the Customer/person making such deposit shall be required to provide Form 60/61. Further, the Customer shall under no circumstances indulge in any scheme for making remittance towards participation in lottery, money circulation schemes, other fictitious offers of funds, etc. and the Customer acknowledges and understands that collecting and effecting/remitting such payments directly/indirectly outside India would make himself liable to be proceeded against contravention of the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 besides being liable for violation of regulations relating to KYC norms / AML standards.
7. Cheque Book Facility and Cheque Deposits: Cheque book facility may be provided to the Customer for making withdrawals of funds/making payments from the Account. The cheque book facility will be provided at the discretion of the Bank and may be withdrawn if the facility is not used in accordance with Bank terms and conditions. The Bank reserves right to withdraw the cheque book facility if cheques issued by the Customer on the Account are frequently dishonored due to insufficient funds being maintained in the Account. Frequent dishonor of cheques issued on the Account due to insufficient funds being maintained in the Account may also result in closure of the Account by the Bank. The Bank's decision in this regard shall be final. The Bank shall incur no liability or responsibility due to withdrawal of the said facility or closure of the Account.
8. If a cheque credited to the Account is subsequently dishonoured, the amount thereof will be debited to the Account and the cheque returned to the Customer at his last known mailing address as per the Bank's records (subject to these Terms and Conditions) and the Bank will levy applicable service charges. In the event the amount in the Account is not sufficient, the Bank shall be entitled to recover the same from any other account of the Customer, held with the Bank, along with interest levied at the prevailing commercial rate on such funds used by the Customer and for the period used.
9. Withdrawals / Payments: All Cash withdrawals shall be permitted only through the printed cheque forms/ withdrawal slips supplied by the Bank and/or through the ATM/microATM/Debit Cards and/or any other mode as may be prescribed by the Bank from time to time.
10. The obligations with respect to the Account and operations of the Account are subject to Law or Regulation. The Customer understands and confirms that the Bank will be entitled at all times, to act in accordance with Law or Regulation, without requiring to provide prior intimation of such actions to the Customer. Any and all limits/constraints imposed by Law or Regulation shall apply to the Account and the Facilities.

Account Information/Statements:

1. The Bank will issue and send to the Customer, statements of Account ("Statement(s)") at such intervals, and in such modes as the Bank may deem fit. Notice of availability of the Statement on the internet would be sent to the Customer via email. The Customer must notify the Bank in writing if any Statement or other advice expected by the Customer is not received within a period of seven (7) days from the date when the same was expected to be received. In case there is a discrepancy, error or omission in the particulars or details of the Account, the Customer shall intimate the Bank in writing of the relevant discrepancy, error or omission within 14 days of receiving the statement. The failure to do so shall deem the Statement to be true and correct for all intents and purposes. The Customer hereby agrees and consents to give to the Bank any notice of availability/ readiness of the Customer's Statement via email. The Customer shall promptly inform the Bank if they are not able to access the electronic copy. In case of joint accounts, all the account holders can view the transaction history and can access/download the statement.
2. The notice of discrepancy shall provide sufficient details to enable the Bank to investigate:
    - the Customer's name and address and all relevant details of the Account;
    - a description of the irregularity or error or discrepancy;
    - a copy of the Statement / transaction slip/other record; and any other information requested by the Bank.
3. The Customer may also obtain balance information relating to the Account or get a verbal or written history by calling the 24-hour telephone banking service, or through Internet Banking or ATM.
