Section 1: General Account Operations & Responsibilities

- Verification: All services, including the opening of the account, are subject to the strict verification of the information and documents provided by the customer.
- Account Dormancy: Customers must routinely keep their accounts active. If an account remains continuously inoperative for a period of two years, it will be classified as Dormant, and all channel facilities (like ATMs and Internet Banking) will be rendered inactive. Reactivation requires the submission of mandatory KYC documents.
- Information Updates: Customers must promptly inform the Bank in writing of any changes to their contact details, address, or personal information. The Bank will not be liable for any communication failures arising from outdated contact information.

Section 2: Fees, Balances, and Penalties

- Levy of Charges: The Bank reserves the right to levy fees, GST, and other statutory imposts on services, which will be automatically deducted from the account balance.
- Minimum Balance Requirements: If the Average Monthly Balance (AMB) is not maintained, the Bank will notify the customer via SMS or email and provide a one-month grace period to restore the balance. If the balance is not restored, proportionate penal charges will be recovered.
- Right of Set-Off: If no funds are available to pay fees or charges, the Bank is authorized to set off any available credit, including amounts from collection proceeds or any other deposits held by the customer.

Section 3: Digital Banking & Security

- Credential Protection: Customers must never reveal sensitive credentials such as ATM PINs, CVV numbers, Internet Banking passwords, or OTPs to anyone, including bank officials. The Bank will never ask for confidential credentials.
- Liability for Unauthorized Use: The Bank is not liable for any losses arising from the unauthorized sharing of login IDs, passwords, or PINs by the customer. If the loss is due to customer negligence, the customer bears the entire loss until the unauthorized transaction is reported.
- Usage Guidelines: Usage of channel facilities (ATMs, Debit Cards, Internet Banking) is strictly governed by the specific guidelines and Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA) regulations provided by the Bank.

Section 4: Website Usage & Intellectual Property

- Limited License: Information and materials on the Bank's website are strictly for personal, non-commercial use. Users are prohibited from modifying, distributing, displaying, or transmitting these materials without prior written permission.
- Trademarks: Logos, brand identities, and service marks displayed on the website are the exclusive property of the Bank. No license or right is granted to third parties to use these trademarks.
- Third-Party Links: The Bank may provide links to external websites for convenience, but it is not responsible for the content, reliability, or privacy practices of those third-party sites.

Section 5: Account Freeze and Closure

- Unilateral Freeze: The Bank retains the right to freeze or close an account without prior intimation in cases of suspected misuse (like money muling), illegal activity, failure to submit required KYC/Aadhaar documents, or unsatisfactory account conduct.
- Closure with Notice: Accounts may be closed with prior intimation if the balance remains zero for three months or more, or if there are high occurrences of dishonored payments.

Section 6: Additional Industry-Standard Clauses (Expanded Additions)

- Anti-Money Laundering (AML) Compliance: The customer agrees to comply with all applicable local and international AML laws. The Bank reserves the right to request additional documentation regarding the source of funds at any time and may suspend transactions that do not align with internal AML guidelines.
- Force Majeure: The Bank shall not be held liable for any failure or delay in fulfilling its obligations due to events beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to natural disasters, acts of God, severe system failures, cyber-attacks, or sudden government regulations.
- Severability: If any provision of these Terms & Conditions is found to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of law, all the remaining provisions will continue to remain in full force and effect.

- Governing Law and Jurisdiction: These terms shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. Any disputes arising out of these terms shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent courts in India.
- Indemnity: The customer agrees to indemnify and hold the Bank, its directors, and employees harmless against any direct or indirect losses, damages, penalties, or claims arising from the customer's breach of these terms, provision of inaccurate information, or misuse of banking facilities.
